

MalvernVale Hotel

Have you wished for a lovely hot roast, or meal at a bistro? Or wanted to watch the latest Live Sports Game on the big screen, over a drink and a meal? Or wished to place a wager on sports or the races/dogs/trots?

Well look no further, for the Malvernvale Hotel is where you should aim for!

Located at 1321 Malvern Road, Malvern, the Malvernvale Hotel is a clean, happy and welcoming spot, to relax after a hard day at the office, or toiling in the garden or on the green... and have a quiet drink, while deciding "should I have the Fish and Chips, the Pasta, Roast, or Steak and Kidney Pie" all meals they are famous for, along with their other culinary delights!

"All of these meals are fantastic" John Edwards and Ron Hodges, members and regulars at the Vale say, "The service is great, and it is so easy to park at the back, making it a great time out!"

The Bistro is a spacious area, with good bar facilities. The Public Bar is a great spot if you don't want the full trimmings of the Bistro meal, or want to follow the sport!

The Pub TAB is well known and popular – friendly staff make it a night to remember!

So the next time you are looking to have a meal out – Lunch or Dinner – or wish to have a flutter on the nags – give the Malvern Vale a go! The food is delicious, and the surroundings fantastic – tell 'em Ashy Bowls sent you!
